She was the color of the Indian summer

And we shared the hours without number

Until one day when the skies turned dark

Caught by the rain and blinded by the lightnin'

C Am G F
We rode the storm out there on Thunder Island

[Solo]

F C G (3x)

Bb(hold) F(hold)
I held her close until the storm passed
C(hold)

And we fell down laughing in the wet grass
 Bb(hold) Dm(hold) C(hold) G A
 Both our bodies drying in the sunshine, sweet sunshine

[Chorus]

So, Bb F
 sha-la-la-la-la-la my lady

 In the sun with your dress undone

 Now, every mile away and every day
