8 o'clock on Friday night I'm still at home

Bm A

All my girls just keep on blowing up my phone

G

Saying "Come on, it ain't worth the pain,

do what you gotta do to forget his name"

Now there's only one thing left for me to do

Slip on my favorite dress and sky high leather boots

Check the mirror one last time, kiss the past goodbye

D

What I'm really needing now is a double shot of Crown

Bm

Chase that disco ball a-round 'til I don't remember

F#

Go until they cut me off, wanna get a little lost in the noise,
in the lights

G

Bm

Hey bar-tender, pour 'em hot tonight 'til the party and music and the truth collide

Bm

Bring it 'til his memory fades away, hey bar-tender

Tonight I'll let a stranger pull me on the floor

Spin me round and let 'em buy a couple more

But before it goes too far, I'll let me down easy

'Cause tonight it's all about dancing with my girls to the DJ, put that song on replay

I'm feeling that buzz, I'm ready to rock, ain't no way I'm gonna tell you to stop (continue...)
